Monthly Newsletter

“I will say of the LORD, ‘He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.’” Psalm 91:2.

This month I realized that I have officially been working at Hope Awaits for one year! This job has been like no other that I have had. It has challenged me both mentally and spiritually.

One year ago God called me to find balance in my life. As a full time masters student it is hard to find balance outside of school. But Hope Awaits gave me the ability to practice my faith and share it with others.

I have been able to share the gospel with many men planting seeds so that one day they grow. We as Christians are called to serve God and lead by example by living Christ like lives.

There are many aspects of working at Hope Awaits that have helped me grow over this past year: seeing lives transformed, seeing the everyday struggle that each person goes through, and being able to grow spiritually in a safe and welcoming environment.

Working with the homeless men in the North Bay community has opened my heart to help them in any way that I can. There are many things that I have seen and experienced at Hope Awaits that has changed the way that I look at people. Every person is vulnerable and the men we help are living in their vulnerability everyday. It breaks my heart to see the hurt that they experience on a daily basis.

I am grateful that God has placed me in a position where I can speak life and truth into people’s lives.

“Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek His will in all you do, and He will show you which path to take.” Proverbs 3:5-6

Highlights

Clients

In October we had nine men reside at the shelter, with 5 still being in the program at month end.

Client Story

During October we had one of our previous clients call. He had stayed at Hope Awaits about a year ago. He was calling to thank us for all that we did to help him. When he came to Hope Awaits he had some medical concerns that were not being attended to. During his stay with us we strongly encouraged him to seek medical attention. He had gone for help, but we never heard the results of what happened as he moved out of Hope Awaits.

While on the phone he expressed his gratitude for us insisting that he seek medical attention; the doctors found something serious and he ended up having to have surgery. He is now all clear and is doing well (both health wise and in other respects).

It was wonderful to hear how God had used Hope Awaits to save and change this man's life! So often we don't know what happens after men leave the program, but phone calls like this encourage us as we see how God continues to bless and work in the lives of those who come through our door.
