Welcome

Check In – How is everyone doing (good things, teaching applied, lessons learned, prayers answered)?

Word

- What do you remember about Easter from when you grew up?
- Read Luke 19:28-38
- The Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem begins what it is traditional known as the “Holy Week” leading up to the cross and Jesus’ resurrection. What stand out to you in this part of the Easter story?
- Pastor John used this passage of scripture as a way of illustrating the need to listen to God’s calling in our lives. The disciples were asked to borrow a colt without asking. Have you ever felt God asking you to do something that seemed to be out of the ordinary?
- Pastor John said that one of the roles of spiritual leaders is to find people. Why is God asking us to keep an eye open to find people?
- The colt that they found was young and unriden. Many people feel that they are not usable by God. How can this passage give us hope? Do you sometimes feel that God can’t use you? How can we overcome this?
- The owners of the colt, let the disciples use the colt? How can we use our resources more effectively for the glory of God?
- What is one thing you need to apply from this lesson?

Witness

Who is God calling you to keep an eye on? Is there someone you can invite to the Good Friday Service?
